

Title: Biographies 3

Author:

Biographies 3

Gondor (captured by British guards) - Former drunken partner of Keeonean, involved in the kidnapping of Lord Nicolus. Arrested by Reszni, he revealed the location of Keeonean's lair, leading to the rescue of Lord Nicolus.

Gregor the Blacksmith - Trinsic Smith at the Shining Path Armory, active during the Crisis in Britannia invasions on Trinsic.

Grimmoch Drummel - One of the four expeditioners that lost their lives in the Sanctum that Khal Ankur's followers built in his honor, now known as Dungeon Khaldun. We know his story from the Expedition Journals and Diaries.

G'Ruagak - Troll. Golden Troll working for Minax, responsible of the attacks against Vesper. Rumored to be a relative of G'Thunk and G'Splat.

Gruzak - A furtrader in Britain, Gruzak seems to be the one who hired Hertun and Gorenck to poison the FoA criminal held in the prison of Yew. Gruzak also has ties with Lord Blackthorn himself...

G'Thunk and G'Splat (Slain) - Trolls. G'Splat was killed in the Battle of Sacrafice. G'Thunk followed the Leader of the FoA to extract revenge on the humies who had killed his brother. He eventually met his demise in the dungeon Shame where the FoA Leader was captured.
He had wanted Halston Montil to kill the Leader in because the Leader had promised him revenge for his brother's death and had not supplied it. When Halston refused, G'Thunk slew many including Julia, before he was brought to his own death.

Halston Montil - The head of the FoA investigation

Hartham (murdered) - Head trainer of the Fighter's Guild of Trinsic

Hertun (slain) - Assassin hired (presumably by Gruzak) to eliminate the FoA prisoners held in Yew. With Gorenck, they succeeded in their attempt but were stopped and slain while fleeing from the scene. On their bodies was found the recipe for the deadly poison used by the FoA and a note saying "Do not fail in your mission - Gruzak".

Humbolt (deceased) - Sage and scholar, martyr of Britannia.

Japheth (slain) - Former Guildmaster of the Paladin's Guild of Trinsic.
After Trinsic was partially burned in an orcish raid, Japheth vowed to live only to protect city. He died warring the hordes. He is mentioned only in books.

Joye (deceased on some shards) - Joye was the librarian of Britain who found the crystal ball sent by Tyball, revealing that Malabelle's lover was not killed by Lord British, but alive and held prisoner by Minax. The crystal ball also shown Joye a lady supposed to be Malabelle carrying a glowing white orb or key. Before being able to use this information, Joye was killed by the minions of Juo'nar. However, Julia appeared to Dupre, and Nystul managed to open a gate to the ethereal void, where five brave volunteers retrieved the ghost of Joye. She could then talk to Dupré, and give him the information needed to make Malabelle help the forces of good.

Julia (killed by the FoA)

- Julia is a tinker in Minoc who was taken by the FoA. She is also one of the traditional companions of the Avatar in previous Ultimas. She was kidnapped by the Followers during their attempt at breaking the world, and killed during the capture of the leader. As a ghost, she appeared to Dupré during the Crisis in Britannia, telling him to find Joye.

Joseff - When questionned by Halston, Joseff (a farmer near Britain and old friend of Sage Winslow) claimed that the Winslow appearing in public lately was NOT the one he knew. Where is the real Winslow?

Juo'Nar (undead) -

Renegade paladin turned into a Lich lord

Kaltar - Gazer Fiend.

Kaltar has the appearance of a gazer, except for a golden hue and the ability to talk. Working for Minax, he is leading the attacks of gazers and headless ones against Cove. He also came to Yew, and managed to free the orc prisoner captured by Sir Geoffrey.

Keeonean - One of Minax
Generals

Lathiari and Kyrnia (destroyed) - Liches

Lilia Morgan - Reporter for Britannia Network News.

Lucinda - Reporter for Britannia Network News.

Lysander Gathenwale -
One of the four expeditioners that lost their lives in the Sanctum that Khal Ankur's followers built in his honor, now known as Dungeon Khaldun. We know his story from the Expedition Journals and Diaries

Lady Machiavelli -
Reporter for Britannia Network News.

Malabelle - Apprentice of Minax

Malak - Unappreciated
Council of Mages mage with strange ideas.

Mariah (kidnapped by FoA)
- Mariah is a renowned mage from Moonglow, and was also taken by FoA at the same time as Julia.
She is also one of the traditional companions of the Avatar in previous Ultimas.

Martoo Saul - See Followers of the Armageddon

Matthew the Bard - Reporter for Britannia Network News.

Minax - Mondain's Lover

Mondain (slain) - A legendary villain. Subject of the stage production, "The Tragic Life of Mondain."

Morg Bergen - One of the four expeditioners that lost their lives in the Sanctum that Khal Ankur's followers built in his honor, now known as Dungeon Khaldun. We know his story from the Expedition Journals and Diaries.

Lord Nicolus - Lord Nicolus was ordered by Lord British to travel the realm bearing gifts during the holidays. He was captured by Keeonean, in an attempt to affect the morale of Britannian citizens, but was rescued.

Nystul - Court Mage to Lord British.

Owen of Yew - Reporter for Britannia Network News.

Relvinian (Possibly a liche) - Renegade Mage

Reszni - Guard of Lord British, he was in charge of the investigation to find Lord Nicolus.

Roxor - Troll. Captain of one of Minax's troll raiding parties.

Selzanhik - Druid of Yew.
Selzanhik was charged with the interrogation of the orc prisoner captured by Sir Geoffrey. However, the attack led by Kaltar against the Yew Court allowed the prisoner to escape. Apparently, nothing of interest was learned from the interrogation of the orc.

Seth - One of Juo'nar's
Generals

Shamino - Ranger and companion to Lord British.
Dressed as Lord British and allowed himself to be captured by Minax to protect Lord British and to gather intelligence in the fight against Minax and her forces.